The Undergraduate Law Journal of Florida Atlantic University (FAU ULJ) is the university's premier publication of legal scholarship. As an academic research journal, the articles within the FAU ULJ are prepared using a stringent combination model, utilizing both peer & faculty review protocols. Alongside FAU's distinguished faculty of legal scholars, students are exposed to legal research, writing, and discourse. Inscribed in the FAU ULJ's logo is the Latin aphorism, "IPSA SCIENTIA POTESTAS EST", translating to "Knowledge is Power", a testament to the FAU ULJ's mission of promoting the community of legal academia to students and scholars alike. The Undergraduate Law Journal of Florida Atlantic University is also published online by FAU Digital Library at <http://journals.fcla.edu/FAUUndergraduateLawJournal> For submission guidelines and membership information, please email ULJ@fau.edu.

Letter From The Editor-in-Chief

Dear Readers,

As we come to a close to this year's journal, I can say with immense pride that the ULJ has managed to create an incredible journal. This year's students have had great dedication and diligence which is more than apparent in their articles. I want to sincerely extend my gratitude to Professor Arflin, without her dedication the journal would not have been formed or continued on for a miraculous 12 years. Professor Horky has my greatest appreciation as well for his constant support and guidance. While there have certainly been difficulties, with many of our officers graduating last year, I would like to both thank and welcome the new officers. I especially would like to thank our Executive Editor Nicolas Smoak whose commitment to the journal has certainly not gone unnoticed and will definitely be missed next year. Club founder Ryan Chae's involvement in this year's journal, and future ones as well, is also welcomed and greatly appreciated.

This year's journal covers a diverse range of topics from new to old, domestic to foreign, and most of all, topics that need to be discussed in the legal field. This group of undergraduate students leaves their mark on legal academia through their analytical articles guided by their own voices. They have managed to accomplish incredible work that we hope you will enjoy below.

Sincerely, Asna Nayani
