The Undergraduate Law Journal of Florida Atlantic University (ULJ FAU) is the university's premier publication of legal scholarship. As an academic research journal, the articles within the ULJ FAU are prepared using a stringent combination model, utilizing both peer & faculty review protocols. Alongside FAU's distinguished faculty of legal scholars, students are exposed to legal research, writing, and discourse. Inscribed in the FAU ULJ's logo is the Latin aphorism, "IPSA SCIENTIA POTESTAS EST", translating to "Knowledge is Power", a testament to the ULJ FAU's mission of promoting the community of legal academia to students and scholars alike. The Undergraduate Law Journal of Florida Atlantic University is also published online by FAU Digital Library at

Dear Readers,

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

It is with great pride that I welcome you to the Spring 2024 Undergraduate Law Journal, our thirteenth edition. This edition certainly had its challenges, but the tremendous work of everyone who participated in the journal this year ensured it was published. This year, our founder and longtime advisor, Professor Cheryl Arflin, retired. I, alongside the rest of our team, would like to extend our deepest congratulations to her. Without Professor Arflin, this journal would not exist, her contributions to its founding, writing, editing, and publication are innumerable. Professor Arflin has our heartfelt gratitude for everything she has done for the journal. We hope this edition, and all future editions, meet the standard of excellence set by her. I would also like to welcome our new advisor, Dr. Anita Blowers. Despite only joining the journal in the Spring, Dr. Blowers has provided essential guidance that has ensured the journal succeeds.

She has allowed for the continuation of the journal and we hope to continue producing high-quality scholarship with her.

The Spring 2024 journal features a variety of incredibly important articles. Our authors critically engage with and challenge laws, both past and present, address ongoing issues, and provide their own analysis and solutions to these complex topics. As you proceed in reading this journal, I hope you can recognize the immense effort of our authors.

Sincerely,
Asna Nayani
