

Days Gone By . . .

BROWARD COUNTY SCENES FROM THE 1940s AND 1950s

Beautiful New River, with downtown Fort Lauderdale in the background, c. 1948.

Dania Beach Boulevard bridgehouse with bait shop and boat livery, 1950.

Peaceful scene on Wilton Drive in Wilton Manors, 1946.

Clyde Beatty's Jungle Zoo, a major tourist attraction in Fort Lauderdale in the 1940s.

Indian Trading Post at the Seminole reservation on U.S. 441, west of Hollywood, c. 1948.

"Cartoon Carnival" at the Florida Theater on East Las Olas Boulevard in Fort Lauderdale, c. 1950.

The Sands Motel, the Intracoastal Waterway, and the beach, with the Atlantic Boulevard bridge at top right, Pompano Beach, 1955.

"Storyland" amusement park on U.S. Highway 1, Pompano, 1956.

