On the Cover

Outside: Broward County has come a long way since 1912 when this photograph was taken on one of Fort Lauderdale's main streets. The wood frame building on the right is the Osceola Hotel (from the Harry Baker Collection, Broward County Historical Commission).

Inside Front: The Sample/McDougald House still stands on Dixie Highway north of Pompano Beach, a landmark reminder of the area's rural past.

Inside Back: The J. W. Young House is one of the most impressive Spanish-styled residents in south Florida. The rear of the home of Hollywood's visionary developer is rarely seen by the public. Photographs by the Broward County Historical Commission.
