

Susie Catherine Holley
1896-1981
in memoriam

For five years Dr. Susie C. Holley served as a member of the Broward County Historical Commission, one of the many civic, religious, cultural and educational organizations to which she devoted a lifetime of untiring service. The City of Fort Lauderdale officially selected her in 1979 as its "Citizen of the Year" and Florida Memorial College partially owes its existence to her support. For many years Dr. Holley also held the presidency of the General Convention of Baptist Women. Certainly, the historic domain of Broward County has been enriched by Dr. Holley's contributions to the preservation and promotion of its culture and heritage. While we are saddened by her death, we are grateful that we knew her.
