

N Northeastern University Chemical Engineering

Professor and Chair

Requisition Number: FTFR001230

Responsibilities:

The College of Engineering at Northeastern University invites applications and nominations for the position of Chair of the Chemical Engineering Department. The Chair will provide a vision to direct the hiring of faculty, the nurturing of research foci, and the development of educational curricula.

Qualifications:

Candidates must demonstrate outstanding leadership, management, and mentoring ability, and a clear vision for the future of the department. The new chair will be expected to build upon the department's recognized strengths, recruit outstanding faculty, promote scholarly initiatives, facilitate internal and external research collaborations, and oversee curriculum changes. Furthermore they should be able to foster corporate and alumni relations, promote new funding opportunities through research and advancement, steer the department through an exciting period of growth and change in the field, and lead the department to its next level of excellence and visibility.

Candidates are expected to have demonstrated strategic vision through leadership of a well-established, nationally and internationally recognized research program, with a strong record of externally-funded research.

Candidates will have demonstrated excellence and significant experience in teaching, with a commitment to high-quality teaching in chemical engineering, and interest in advancing education programs with a balance between undergraduate and graduate levels.

Candidates should also have demonstrated leadership and administrative experience and a distinguished record of service.

A doctorate degree in chemical engineering or closely related fields of science and engineering is required.
