

CHEMICAL ENGINEERING DIVISION ACTIVITIES

TWENTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL LECTURESHIP AWARD TO BRICE CARNAHAN

The 1990 ASEE Chemical Engineering Division Lecturer is Brice Carnahan of the University of Michigan. The purpose of this award lecture is to recognize and encourage outstanding achievement in an important field of fundamental chemical engineering theory or practice. The 3M Company provides the financial support for this annual award.

Bestowed annually upon a distinguished engineering educator who delivers the annual lecture of the Chemical Engineering Division, the award consists of $1,000 and an engraved certificate. These were presented to Dr. Carnahan at a banquet during the ASEE annual meeting at the University of Toronto.

Dr. Carnahan's lecture was entitled "Computers in Engineering Education: From There, to Here, to Where?" and it will be published in a forthcoming issue of CEE.

The award is made on an annual basis, with nominations being received through February 1, 1991. Your nominations for the 1991 lectureship are invited.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CITATION

Raymond W. Fahien (University of Florida) received the Distinguished Service Citation for his outstanding service to the profession over the past forty years and for his unselfish and longstanding devotion to excellence in engineering education. In addition to his teaching and research activities, he has edited the journal Chemical Engineering Education since 1967.

AWARD WINNERS

E. Dendy Sloan, Jr., (Colorado School of Mines) was the recipient of the fifth annual Corcoran Award, presented in recognition of the most outstanding paper published in Chemical Engineering Education in 1989. His paper, "Extrinsic Versus Intrinsic Motivation in Faculty Development," appeared in the summer 1989 issue of CEE.

The Joseph J. Martin Award was presented to John W. Hoopes, Jr. (Widener University) for the best paper presented at the annual ASEE meeting.

R. Neal Houze (Purdue University), recipient of the Clement J. Freund Award, was recognized for his outstanding contributions to cooperative education programs through twenty years of innovative and impressive leadership

Joint recipients of the Meriam/Wiley Distinguished Author Award were Dale E. Seborg (University of California, Santa Barbara), Thomas F. Edgar (University of Texas), and Duncan A. Mellichamp (University of California, Santa Barbara) for their joint coauthorship of the outstanding textbook Process Dynamics and Control.

Philip C. Wankat (Purdue University) received the Chester F. Carlson Award in recognition of his exceptional work in integrating educational pedagogy with technical applications, and the Curtis W. McGraw Research Award winner, James M. Caruthers (Purdue University), was singled out for his fundamental and original contributions to the theory and application of polymeric materials.

Y. A. Liu (Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University) was honored with the George Westinghouse Award for his outstanding achievements as a teacher, counselor, scholar, researcher, organizer, and consultant.

AT&T Foundation Awards, honoring outstanding teachers, were presented to W. Nicholas Delgass (Purdue University) and John W. Zondlo (West Virginia University), while Dow Outstanding Young Faculty Awards went to Andrew L. Zydney (University of Delaware), Richard Turton (West Virginia University), Ronald W. Larsen (Montana State University), and Robert H. Davis (University of Colorado).
