

ChE Division Shines at Annual ASEE Convention

Chemical Engineers attending the annual convention of the American Society for Engineering Education last June came away with the lion's share of awards and special recognition. Our congratulations go to those who were recognized for their singular contributions to the profession as a whole and to chemical engineering education in particular.

Named as ASEE Fellows

Richard M. Felder • North Carolina State University
Thomas W. Weber • State University of New York at Buffalo

■ The Chester F. Carlson Award for Innovation in Engineering Education

Thomas M. Regan • University of Maryland, College Park

■ General Electric Senior Research Award

Howard Brenner • Massachusetts Institute of Technology

■ Curtis W. McGraw Research Award

Lorenz T. Biegler • Carnegie Mellon University

■ Meriam-Wiley Distinguished Author Award

H. Scott Fogler • University of Michigan Steven LeBlanc • University of Toledo

■ George Westinghouse Award

C. Stewart Slater • Rowan College

■ College-Industry Partnership Division: Best Session Award

Thomas R. Hanley • University of Louisville

■ College-Industry Education Conference: Best Presenter

Thomas R. Hanley • University of Louisville

■ Woody Everett Award

Michael L. Mavrovouniotis • Northwestern University

■ Delos Division: Best Paper Award

Robert D. Knecht • Colorado School of Mines

■ Outstanding Campus Representative Award: Midwest Section

Robert Ybarra • University of Missouri-Rolla

■ Outstanding Campus Representative Award: New England Section

Ralph Buonopane • Northeastern University

ChE Division Awards

CACHE Award

Kenneth R. Jolls
Iowa State University

William H. Corcoran Award

David F. Ollis
North Carolina State University

Joseph J. Martin Award

Dennis J. Miller
Michigan State University

Union Carbide Lectureship Award

Thomas F. Edgar
University of Texas at Austin