INSTRUCTIONS TO AUTHORS

Articles published in Florida Entomologist reflect all aspects of basic and applied entomological science. There are no geographical restrictions regarding location, publication, although priority will be given to manuscripts that reflect the fauna of the western hemisphere, or are of great interest to entomologists in this region.

PUBLICATION FEES: As a rough estimate, 3 to 4 manuscript pages (including pages with tables and figures) generally make 1 printed page. Beginning in January 2017, page charges for printed society and US$150 per member (plus sales tax for Florida residents); this fee includes unrestricted electronic access via the journal’s website and BioOne. Reprints may be ordered directly from the printer. Added fees are due upon receipt of the electronic page proofs, and you will receive an invoice from the printer. The printer will begin final processing for publication upon receipt of the payment for reprints. Credit card payments are preferred.

SUBMISSION: Upload an original manuscript as an electronic version in Microsoft Word at this site: http://journals.fcla.edu/flaent. Once you create a username and password, it is an easy 5-step process to complete the submission.
