

- Roth, L. M., and F. N. Young. 1944. Culex (Melanoconion) atratus Theobald in Florida; a new continental North American record, with notes on the other melanoconions of the southeastern United States. Ann. Ent. Soc. Amer. 37(1): 84-88.
- Thurman, E. B., J. S. Haeger, and J. A. Mulrennan. 1949. The occurrence of Aedes (Ochlerotatus) thelcter Dyar in the Florida Keys. Mosquito News 9(4): 171-172.
-

NOTICE OF 42nd ANNUAL MEETING OF THE FLORIDA ENTOMOLOGICAL SOCIETY

The Executive Committee of the Florida Entomological Society has selected Miami, Florida, as the location for the 1959 meeting to be held on September 10 and 11 at the McAllister Hotel.

The following committee assignments have been made by President Hunter so that plans for the meeting can be made well in advance.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE: Dr. L. C. Kuitert (Chairman, 1958-59), 3 year term

Mr. W. B. Gresham, Jr., 2 year term

Dr. D. O. Wolfenbarger, 1 year term

PROGRAM COMMITTEE (1959 meetings): Dr. F. G. Butcher (Chairman)

LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE (1959 meetings): Mr. John Porter (Chairman)