

STATEMENT ON EDITORSHIP OF FLORIDA ENTOMOLOGIST

Effective on January 1, 2011, Dr. Waldemar Klassen will take editorship of Florida Entomologist. Dr. Klassen has had a distinguished career as an entomologist with the USDA. After retiring from Federal service, he served for four years with the Joint FAO/IAEA Division of Nuclear Techniques in Food and Agriculture, and then as Director of the University of Florida Tropical Research and Education Center (TREC) in Homestead, FL. Dr. Klassen is now retired in Homestead, FL, but maintains an office at the TREC where he can receive E-mail and postal service mail. His E-mail address is WKlassen@ufl.edu and his mailing address is University of Florida, TREC, 18905 SW 280th Street, Homestead, FL 33031-3314. Authors should send new manuscripts to Dr. Klassen beginning in December 2010. Until then, manuscripts should continue to come to James L. Nation, Editor, Florida Entomologist, University of Florida, Gainesville, FL 32611. The E-mail address is JLN@ufl.edu. More details on the change in editorship will be printed in the December issue of Florida Entomologist.
