This committee shall coordinate all affairs of the society related to student activities, including distribution of patron funds for support of student attendance at meetings, recognition of student at meetings, reports of students and other student related activities.

5. Editorial Committee. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall appoint an editorial committee consisting of one (1) associate editor from each of the five (5) sections and additional members who conduct the reviews for the peer reviewed papers. The Editor will serve as the chairman of the Editorial Committee. This committee shall meet with the Editor as called and assist him or her in the editing and preparation of manuscripts for publication in the proceedings as needed. Name of nominees for associate editor position shall be presented to the Board of Directors along with brief resumes of their background and qualifications. Associate editors for refereed and non-refereed papers shall then be appointed by the Chairman of the Board of Directors with the approval of the editor. Such appointment shall be for a three (3) year term with an option for renewal

6. Auditing Committee. The President with the approval of the Board of Directors shall appoint an auditing committee which committee shall confer with the Treasurer in preparing an audit to be presented by the Treasurer at the annual meeting. The President shall appoint such other committees as may be deemed advisable and approved by the Board of Directors.

7. Awards Committee. There shall be a separate committee on awards as follows:

A. Presidential Gold Medal Award Committee - the presidential gold medal award committee shall consist of the Chairman of the Board of Directors who shall act as chairman and three (3) or more other members of the society of the corporation appointed by the President. The presidential gold medal shall be awarded to one (1) individual who has contributed most to Florida horticulture through work published in the proceedings over the preceding time periods since the given section was last eligible. The award will rotate each year from section to section with the Citrus Section eligible in 1975 followed in order by the Krome Memorial Institute, Vegetable Section, Ornamental, Garden & Landscape Section, and Handling & Processing Sections. The awards shall consist of a gold medal suitably inscribed, a printed certificate, an honorarium of $500.00, and hotel expenses for the recipient and spouse while at the annual meeting.

B. Best Paper Award Committee - the best paper award committees shall be appointed by the President annually from each of the society's sections. Each committee will consist of three (3) members who:

- a. Most recently have served as Vice-Presidents of respective sections but;
- b. Who were not authors of papers in that volume of the proceedings from which the selection is being made,
- c. Who remain members of the corporation.

If less than three (3) members qualify for appointment in any section, the President may appoint members lacking qualification (a) above. Membership of these committees will not be announced. Each sectional best paper will select the best and most meritorious paper as printed in the previous year's proceedings for its respective section. This award shall consist of a medal and printed certificate suitably inscribed and an honorarium of $200.00.

C. Presidents Industry Award Committee. The selection of the paper qualifying for the president's industry award will be made by a committee consisting of at least one (1) member from each section of the society, appointed by the President. The award will be presented to the senior author of a single best paper given at the Florida State Horticultural Society annual meeting by an industry author. An industry author is defined as anyone other than a staff member of an academic institution or a government agency. In those instances where there are both senior and junior authors, all must meet the qualifications of industry authors. The senior author of the paper must be a member of the society. Any paper which receives recognition as the best paper in a section will also be eligible for the President's Industry Award if other qualifications are met. The award shall consist of a plaque suitably inscribed and presented at the Presidents discretion.

D. Council Memorial Tomato Research Award. This award shall be presented based on $2,500.00 donated to the corporation by Mrs. Emmett H. Council, Council Farms, Ruskin, Florida. The award shall be continued until the fund and earnings from investments are exhausted. The award committee shall consist of the Chairman of the Board of Directors and four (4) other members of the corporation appointed at large by the President whose names will not be announced. The award shall be given to the individual or group who has done work with the most potential to further the fresh market tomato industry in Florida through advances reported in any single publication in any scientific or technical form. Such publication must have been published during the two (2) previous calendar years. The senior author of the publication upon which the award is based must be an active member of this corporation. At the discretion of the Chairman of the Board, the award may not be presented in any given year when there does not appear to be suitable nominees. The award shall consist of a certificate suitably inscribed and a $200.00 honorarium.

E. Outstanding Commercial Horticulturist Award. This award shall be presented annually to an individual who has made significant contribution to the commercial Florida horticultural industry and to the FSHS. Criteria for the selection will be based on the following: Accomplishments: 1. Membership and participation in the Florida State Horticultural Society. 2. Leadership in the Florida horticultural industry. 3. Excellence in the production and/or marketing of horticultural crops. Procedures: 1. The award will be rotated annually among the five Sections of the FSHS in order as follows: Vegetable Section, Citrus Section, Krome Memorial Institute, Ornamental, Garden & Landscape Sections, and Handling & Processing Section, starting in 2002 with the Handling & Processing Section. 2. The president shall appoint a selection committee of five (5) members, three from the section to receive the award. Members are encouraged to submit nominations in written format to the secretary or the president. 3. Recipients are not required to present a paper at the annual meeting. 4. The award will consist of a suitable inscribed plaque and printed certificate.

F. Student Best Paper Award. Students are encouraged to attend the annual meeting and to compete for the Award. The student and the student advisor must be members to participate and the student must be the senior author of the paper and deliver the presentation. Papers and presentations will be judged by a committee chairman and at least two (2) individuals from different Sections appointed by the President. Manuscripts and presentations at the annual meeting will be judged on organization, clarity of introduction and literature review, effective use of figures and tables, report of conclusions, completeness, timing, response to questions, and importance to Florida horticulture. The committee members shall score each student, determine a first, second and third place winner, and announced winners at the annual business meeting. Student winners will receive prize money with monetary values set by the Board of Directors and be recognized in the Proceedings of the Florida State Horticultural Society.

ARTICLE XI

BY LAW AMENDMENT

The By Laws or the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation may be amended, repealed or altered in whole or in part by a majority vote at any duly organized meeting of the members at which a quorum shall be present. Notice of the proposed change shall be published in the news letter and mailed to each member at his/her last known address at least ten (10) days prior to the time and date of the meeting which is to consider and vote upon such change or amendment. The proposed change or amendment to the By Law or the Articles of Incorporation shall, prior to notice being given of such meeting, be ratified and approved by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of the directors present at such Board of Director's meeting. Only those directors present may cast their vote on the action before the meeting.

Copies of such revised or amended By Laws or Charter shall be given to any member upon request.

ARTICLE XII
PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The Rules contained in Roberts Rules of Order as Revised shall govern the Board of Directors, Officers, Chairmen of various Committees, and the Members in all cases in which they are applicable, provided, however, that they do not conflict with the By Laws of the Charter of this Corporation, or with the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE XIII
FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the Corporation shall commence on the 1st day of January of each year and terminate on the 31st day of each calendar year.

ARTICLE XIV
SEAL

The Corporation shall have a seal of such design as may be approved by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XV
DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS

Upon dissolution, liquidation and winding up of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all assets of the Corporation exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation in such manner, and to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, education, religious, horticultural or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) or (c)(5) or the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended, as the Board of Directors may determine. Any assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes, or to such organization or organizations as such Court shall determine which will not impair the tax exempt status of this Corporation.

ARTICLE XVI
INDEMNIFICATION

The Corporation may be empowered to indemnify any officer or director, or any former officer or director, by a majority vote of a quorum of directors or by a majority vote of a quorum of members, who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, in the manner provided in Section 607.014 of the Florida Statutes, as amended. If such indemnification is authorized by the directors or members, expenses incurred in defending such civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding in the manner described in Subsection 5 of Section 607.014 of the Florida Statutes, as amended, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount unless he/she is found to be entitled to such indemnification.

ARTICLE XVII
CONTRACTS, CHECKS, DEPOSITS

Section 1. Contracts. The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or agent of the Corporation to enter into any contract or to execute and deliver any instrument or document on behalf of the Corporation, which authority may be general or specific.

Section 2. Deposit. All funds received by the Corporation shall be deposited in such depositories as selected by the Board of Directors or in such Trusteeship for said funds as the Corporation through its Board of Directors may deem in the best interests of the Corporation. "All uncommitted funds shall be invested by the Treasurer in Federal Insured Investments approved by the Board of Directors". For prudent operation and financial security of the Corporation, funds in an amount at least one and one-half (1.5) times the annual expenses shall be maintained, whenever possible, in such reserve funds and shall not be allowed to exceed two and one-half (2.5) times annual expenses. Deviations from these practices may be authorized by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Checks. All checks, drafts, or any authorization for the payment of any notes, sums of money, or other evidence of debt issued in the name of the Corporation shall be signed by such officers or agents as shall from time to time be designated and determined by the Board of Directors. Unless otherwise authorized, such instruments shall be signed by the Treasurer and the President or the Vice-President of the Citrus section.

Section 4. Approval of Bills. All bills before being paid shall be approved by the President, Secretary or Treasurer and vouchers drawn to pay such bills shall be signed as herein above provided.

ARTICLE XVIII
RESOLUTIONS

Resolutions may originate either in the Resolutions Committee or in a regular scheduled sectional business meeting. In the latter case the resolutions must be supported by a majority vote of those members present voting. All resolutions will be evaluated by the Resolutions Committee and transmitted with its recommendation to the Chairman of the Board of Directors. He will place them before the full Board of Directors by either:

- A. Calling a special meeting of the Board of Directors or;
- B. Instructing the Secretary to poll the members of the Board of Directors.

Those resolutions approved by at least eight (8) members of the Board of Directors will be presented by the chairman of the Resolutions Committee to the membership at the annual meeting for action by the Corporation as a whole.

ARTICLE XIX
HONORARY MEMBERS

Any individual who has rendered a special meritorious service to the society and to the advancement of horticulture in Florida may be designated by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the full Board of Directors as an honorary member of the Corporation. Such honorary member shall not be required to pay dues.

ARTICLE XX RECORDS

The Corporation shall maintain correct and proper books and records and shall keep minutes of all meetings of the members and Board of Directors, at the principal office of the Corporation. All such records may be inspected by any director, member, or agent or attorney of either, or any proper person at any reasonable time.
