

PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

FLORIDA STATE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

The Ft. Lauderdale Research and Education Center, University of Florida, recently has developed a highly successful training program toward a B.S. degree in Ornamental Horticulture. The 16-course curriculum is mainly directed toward placebound students who, due to job and other commitments, cannot move to the main campus at Gainesville. (Photo courtesy Walter Coker, University of Florida)

Vol. 102, 1989

Published by the Society, May 1990