
COASTAL PHOTOGRAPH BY VIRGINIA DIVISION OF TOURISM

PHOTO 23. Tangier Island, Virginia. This small island in the middle of Chesapeake Bay was settled in the 1680's by a fishing family from Cornwall, England. The island, with fewer than one thousand inhabitants, now has an ariport but no automobiles or roads. The fishermen harvest oysters, clams, crabs, and fish from the bay.