
COASTAL PHOTOGRAPH BY RHODES W. FAIRBRIDGE

PHOTO43. Longshore of parallel waters at Tel Aviv, with Jaffa in distance. The refracted and intersecting wave patterns favor sand accretion, creating miniature tombolos, and increase effective length of coastline (Photograph by R. W. Fairbridge, 18 Oct., 1980.)