

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD PRESENTED TO PER BRUUN, ASSOCIATE EDITOR OF THE JOURNAL OF COASTAL RESEARCH, AT THE 44TH FSBPA CONFERENCE

Per Bruun is recognized for his unstinting efforts to serve the coastal research community. Officially retired after many years in the professorate, Per continues to contribute professional papers to coastal journals that feature coastal engineering topics. In addition to consulting in coastal engineering, Per is actively engaged in the lecture circuit, giving short courses and talks at universities as well as at professional meetings. Per is a regular fixture at the annual FSBPA meetings.

Per Bruun (right), Associate Editor of the Journal of Coastal Research, receiving the Florida Shore and Beach Association's (FSBPA) Distinguished Service Award from Charles Hilton (left), President and CEO of Hilton, Inc., Panama City, Florida. Stan Tait (center), President of FSBPA, looks on approvingly as Bruun accepts the award.